

DUNDEE GETS POOR "BREAKS" IN SOME OF HIS RECENT BOUTS

Lost Decision in Fight With Leonard When He Seems to Have Been Entitled to Draw; Morgan Claims to Have a World Beater in Sailor Grande, Claiming He Can Defeat Gibbons or Any in His Class.

By T. S. ANDREWS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 4.—Johnny Dundee, the clever Italian lightweight of New York, has had a run of unfortunate breaks in his bouts lately. Johnny, according to nearly all the New Orleans papers, had the best of the contest with Joe Mandot, but lost the decision. A report was sent out from New York that Benny Leonard had beaten him in ten rounds, but when the facts were presented it was found that even the papers of Syracuse, where the fight was staged, gave Leonard the best of it. Now Scotty Montell, manager of Dundee, is hot on the trail of both Mandot and Leonard for return matches and he asks for the main thing, a route so there can be no dispute as to the winner.

Scotty says that while Johnny went to rounds with Mandot, it made no difference as it was a very unfair decision. There is one thing to be said in Dundee's favor—he is a real lightweight and can make the weight which cannot be said of a number of them. Johnny can do 125 at three or four pounds over and can take a good deal of punishment. He is a real fighter and has a good deal of heart. He is a real fighter and has a good deal of heart. He is a real fighter and has a good deal of heart.

Morgan Boasts Sailor Grande. "Dumie" Dan Morgan, manager of "Knockout" Brown and many stars during his day, has taken over the Sallor Grande, the Pacific coast midweight, when Daniel says can whip all the Gibbons, Abernethy, Chips and Clabby put to one side. Daniel is apt to know a bit enthusiastic over his charges, as in the past of battling Lascinsky and Brown, but he seems that Grande is just one tough guy who can whip anything near his weight in the world.

"Wildcats and beards are not in it with this fight," is the way Dan writes about the sailor. "If Grande cannot beat Chip and Mike Gibbons in one ring, then I will be willing to eat nothing but salt herring the rest of my life," continues Daniel, "and you know that Mr. Morgan is a great lover of stuffed duck and pigs knuckles." Joe, who is willing to match him against Jack Dillon, Bob Moha and four Rodeo the same night.

Australian Boxing Boomers. According to advices received from Australia, the boxing man there is having quite a boom again. Charles Eberhart, at one time a very clever lightweight of Milwaukee and later sparring partner of Battling Nelson, is in the Antipodes at present doing a vaudeville stunt and he writes a very interesting letter regarding the boxing game here. In fact, he says:

"This is the greatest sporting country in the world. I just stepped into Mr. Corbett's office, whom you know very well, and while there I was almost dumfounded to have several American boys come in with whom I was well acquainted back in the states. It was certainly great to meet them at that time. Mr. Corbett has been very kind to me and all the American boys over here. I have been spending considerable time out of Coogee Bay surfing. I think it has Atlantic City beaten."

Darcy Won Fairly. "I was with George 'Knockout' Brown and Freddie Gilmore, and while there I did considerable boxing with them. I saw Brown in his fight with Darcy and the latter won it fairly, although Brown put up a good battle. Freddie Gilmore, the former California boxer, defeated Nick King in a 20 round contest for the middleweight championship of Australia and the Chicago boy, turning to me said: 'Can you beat it, that a guy like that (meaning Brown) should have won over me? I fall to win I never want to box again.' Gilmore is matched to meet Frank O'Connor, who has had five straight knockouts to his credit. He looks to me like a very good boy, and Gilmore will have a hard fight on his hands."

Gilmore Wants a Return. "I witnessed the battle last night between Herb McCoy and Tommy Tren. McCoy won on points in 20 rounds; in fact, he was never in danger of defeat. I was sitting next to Freddie Gilmore at the time, and the Chicago boy, turning to me said: 'Can you beat it, that a guy like that (meaning Brown) should have won over me? I fall to win I never want to box again.' Gilmore is matched to meet Frank O'Connor, who has had five straight knockouts to his credit. He looks to me like a very good boy, and Gilmore will have a hard fight on his hands."

White Sox Defeat College Team in Exhibition Game. Chicago, Iowa, May 4.—The Chicago American league team defeated St. Joseph's college of Dubuque, Wednesday, 9 to 0, in an exhibition game. The Sox loaned a battery to the college team, Faber, who formerly played on the St. Joseph's team but who now is with the big leaguers, started the game, with Lee as catcher for him.
